What's your favourite thing about Éire Óg Greystones?
The Coaches.

Describe yourself in three words?
Team player, fast, committed.

The best thing about playing GAA? - Beating Carnew!

Funniest memory of playing a game?
Mick Burns ghost stories in the car on the way home from matches.

Favourite GAA team and why?
Cork because they are the best!

Person that motivates you most while playing for the club?
Our coach Mark Barry.

Team member that you most admire and why?
Joshua Barry because he is a great team player.

Your playing goal for 2022?
For 2022, I would like to see the team win as many games as possible.

Playing achievement, you are most proud of?
Winning man of the match in our county final in 2020.

Favourite sporting venues in Wicklow and Ireland?
In Wicklow, I like playing in Eire Og and in Ireland I enjoy playing at Kildare's grounds as the pitch is nice.

Would you rather play a match with your team as the underdog or as the favourite and why?
As the underdog as it makes you want to win.

Would you rather play an amazing game but lose or an average game and win?
Play an average game and win as everything is for the team.

Would you rather be the most skilled player or the most intelligent player?
The most intelligent player as skills can be developed.

What has COVID taught you to value most?
Covid has taught me to value playing matches and not just doing training sessions.
